PREAMBLE

The Consulate General of India, Frankfurt had invited Government of Maharashtra for the event of ‘Maharashtra Business Day’ organized in collaboration with Marathi Katta Germany on 7th June, 2025. Already there are several German companies operating from Maharashtra and there are several collaborations happening between the start-up ecosystems in India and Germany. Accordingly the event aimed to promote and strengthen business collaborations between Maharashtra and Germany.

The event has provided a huge platform for further strengthening new business linkages between Germany and Maharashtra. The Maharashtra diaspora also has a lot of professionals and businessmen who happily supported the event.

2. Along with the event some sessions and panel discussion have been arranged about building partnership with various sectors. Therefore the event was like an opportune use to encourage some potential entrepreneurs/investors investment in the state of Maharashtra and to address Marathi diaspora directly to build up strong industrial ecosystem as well.

3. Keeping the view to strengthen business networks in Germany; Government of Maharashtra have accepted the invitation of the Consulate General of India, Frankfurt and have decided to send the state level delegation under the chairmanship of Hon’ble Dr. Uday Samant, Minister (Industries) to attend the “Maharashtra Business Day” held on 7th June, 2025 and the G2B meetings and factory visits after the event at Frankfurt, Germany for the period of 5th June,2025 to 10th June 2025 (including travel time).
